Thursday night.

Dear Mr. Hill

I received your letter of the 4th inst. this (Thursday) morning, and I wish to say, here and now, how pleased I was to hear from you, and how truly grateful I do feel, for your kind thoughts towards me. I wish to tell you Mr Hill, that I shall be ~~unable~~ unable to fall in with your suggestion re Saturday, owing to previous arrangements, which I have made, but if it will be convenient to you, I will meet you on Sunday evening, at the corner of Moss Lane and Streetford Road, at about 8 o'clock, (All being well) and we can then have a little chat together. I do not propose to write at any length, at the moment, but I will tell you all about myself, when I see you. I trust that you are quite well yourself, and that I shall have the pleasure of spending a little time in your company, on Sunday evening, as above suggested. Believe me to remain

Yours Fraternaly,

H. Stothard
